An Evening with SCHOLARSHIP AMERICA

*Investing in students.
Above all else.*

Investing in Students. Above All Else.

On November 2, Scholarship America is engaging a select group of executives, philanthropists and education supporters for An Evening with Scholarship America, and we'd love for you to be a part of the event.

Held in the Grand Ballroom and private restaurant of the Central Park Club—the highest ever built in New York City—our guests will experience a specially curated menu of small plates by Michelin-starred talent including Chefs Alfred Portale, Laurent Tourondel and Gabriel Kreuther. Culinary delights will be paired with a cocktail experience like no other from Ramona Jackson, award-winning mixologist and owner of the Bourbon Bohemian.

The purpose of the evening, which will also feature remarks and entertainment from nationally-known figures, is to invigorate our community and introduce new supporters to Scholarship America's mission: eliminating barriers to educational success so that any student can pursue their dream. We are raising funds to make a life-changing impact on students, especially those from traditionally underserved communities who face high financial need.

We are currently offering limited opportunities to become premium-level sponsors of An Evening with Scholarship America:
